Dear Friends,

As we celebrate our nation's freedom this weekend, please take a minute to pause and pray, thanking God for the gift of our freedom and specifically, our freedom to worship. Even when we are unable to be together, it is still a privilege and blessing to worship God openly.

Let me encourage you to exercise this freedom this coming week by carving 30 minutes out of your week to tune in from wherever you are to our FPCP on-line services. You can access this service on any day and time from Sunday at 9 am onwards. This week is exciting in that part of it our service is literally filmed in a pit. Additionally, we were blessed during our filming by a surprise visitor, a deer who clearly has an interest in faith strolls through the background of our sermon. This was a powerful reminder that God's grace is on display everywhere if we have eyes open to see it.

Take time to refuel the fire of faith within you. Open your eyes to all that God is doing in our midst. Please remember the church, and pray for us. We need your prayers at this time.

Next week, we will ask you to participate in a congregational survey about re-opening the church for live worship service. Your participation will help shape our worship going forward.

I pray that we would be faithful to Christ's leading,
Emily
