Usher Volunteers Needed!

Looking for an opportunity to volunteer? We have a great group of people in our congregation who faithfully help with ushering at our services. We are always looking for more volunteers to be regular ushers serving once per month, or usher substitutes, filling in where needed. We usher in the Sanctuary at the 9:30 am service and also the Upper Room at 11:15 am. Keep in mind for the Upper Room service, we could use a family to serve. It would be a great way to get your children involved with serving! If you are interested in signing up or would just like more information, please contact Carol Stoner at Stonerjc@comcast.net or Jennifer Hollebrands at the church office. Thank you for considering!

Thank You For Super Sunday!

What an exciting Super Sunday we had on October 29th! We observed Reformation Sunday, a key day in the history of the church. We had the pleasure of welcoming eight new members. We presented Bibles to second graders. We enjoyed a wonderful variety of music from the Chancel Choir, the children's choir and Chris DuPont. We listened to the conclusion of a powerful sermon series on prayer by Pastor Emily. Finally, over 150 members and friends joined in the Super Sunday potluck for food and fellowship.

The Stewardship and Worship committees would like to thank the many committees and individuals who worked together to make the meal and resulting fellowship a tremendous success! Special thanks to the Earth Care team who selflessly wash all the dishes after these events. Members from Hospitality, Worship, the Deacons, along with expert individuals, kept the kitchen and buffet line going. It was great to have a few teenagers help throughout the meal and with clean-up. Thanks to the crew that restored the Dining Room and Fellowship Hall. From set-up to tear-down, many hands worked in harmony to celebrate a meal together. Finally, a special thanks to all of the participants who attended this Super Sunday morning and to those who prepared delectable dishes for all of us to share. Praise God!
